

Oil, Gas and Mining for Development

Training workshop for Policy Makers and Civil Society on how best can Tanzania harness natural resources for the realization of its development goals

Dar es Salaam from 26th to 30th June 2017.

REPOA in collaboration with Natural Resource Governance Institute (NRGI) invites members of civil society organisations, policy makers and other extractive industry stakeholders in the country to a training workshop on “How best can Tanzania harness natural resources for the realization of its development goals”.

This is a hands-on “learning from practice” 5 day workshop that will focus on building the understanding of the links between, and the dynamics of, Extractives Governance and the implementation of FYDPII. The training aims to improve participants’ knowledge not only of policy options and tools to achieve the objectives of the plan, but also the inherent challenges.

The course content

The course modules focus around:

1. The socio-economic context that underpins Tanzania’s governance of its extractives sector.
2. The fundamentals of oil, gas and mineral resource governance for sustainable development.
3. Identification of new insights into the opportunities and challenges associated with extractives governance for the implementation of the FYDP II.

Applicants Requirements:

This workshop assumes prior knowledge of the extractives sector. It is specifically designed for civil society members, policy makers, researchers and other interested practitioners to deepen their engagement in the extractive sector, with the aim of supporting development of the local expertise necessary to ensure that Tanzania maximises the benefits from its resources.

Applicant requirements include:

- Previous knowledge and understating of natural resource governance.
- Current engagement in the extractive sector in the country.

Certificate of attendance

Participants will be required to actively participate for the whole course duration. Pre and post training quizzes will be administered to measure the level of knowledge acquisition. A certificate of attendance will only be awarded to participants according to the degree of their activeness in the workshop activities, and upon obtaining an acceptable score in the post training assessment.

Applicants should submit:

- I. A typed motivation letter stating how the knowledge gained from this workshop will be used, how the workshop content fits to the applicant’s current work focus and explaining how this training will help the applicant in their role.
- II. Detailed curriculum vitae.
- III. Confirmation of clearance from employer (for public employees).

Logistics

All costs related to the course will be covered by the organiser(s).

The closing date for applications is 15th May 2017. Only successful applicants will be notified.

Women are highly encouraged to apply.

Completed application should be clearly marked “Application for Training workshop” and addressed to:
